

A DESCRIPTION OF DECISION MAKING PROCESSES OF THE INFORMATION COMMISSION

1. The KPK Information Commission is tasked with the responsibility of deciding complaints of citizens who are denied information by the public bodies.

The procedure that is followed in this regard is as given below:

- a) Registration of Complaint in the legal Branch of this Commission.
 - b) Written directions issued to the concerned public bodies for provision of desired information to the complainant.
 - c) If the public body fails to respond then the PIO are summoned to attend the Commission.
 - d) Decision are taken by the Commission on the Complaint (while taking decision at least two commissioners are required to be present).
2. The point of view of the complainant and the PIO is duly taken into account before deciding a complaint.

